

18th Annual

CANTERBURY FOLK FESTIVAL

FOLK · BLUES & BEYOND

MUSIC · SONG · DANCE

• WAINUI • EASTER · APRIL 9th-11th '93

• PROGRAMME •

FESTIVAL GUESTS

ALISTAIR HULETT

Originally from Scotland now resident in Sydney. He performs his own songs with a passion that is both infectious and breathtaking. A major talent whose songs are covered by many artists both in Australia and overseas. His new recording "Dance of the Underclass" is destined to become a classic!! Not to be missed, only at this festival.

DUO JACKSON

Guitar and violin... Jazz and classical...
From Nelson

A professional duo who are constantly touring both here and overseas and we consider ourselves very lucky that they managed to fit us into their busy schedule. A new recording just released by National Replay Radio "Gypsy Jazz and Music for Lovers" is a reflection of their current musical direction.

ANGELA AND ANDREW DIXON from Auckland

Lovely vocals. Two guitars, flute, saxophone and keyboard...impeccable music from these two talented performers, Finalists in last years N.Z. Music Awards. Just released a new recording.

JOHN ARCHER from Wanganui

A ballad writer and performer specialising in humour rooted in North Island rural Pakeha culture. The writer of the famed "Thompson's Bus" and "Barb-Wire Annie" among many others.

GODFREY AND TAROA POHATU from Dunedin

Truly original N.Z. music - Contemporary Maori songs from this respected duo. We're very excited to have these unique performers at our Festival.

MIKE BROSAN

A lucky strike brings us this masterful ragtime and blues performer. Specialising in the standards of the 30's & 40's from Mississippi John Hurt to Ry Cooder. Not to be missed concerts and workshops.

ROSA SHIELS

Outstanding performer recently returned after 18 years in Australia. Rosa is a dynamic multi-talented singer, pianist and guitar player whose material covers contemp. - blues - original. Welcome home Rosa.

THREE BITES OF THE APPLE

Hand-picked for our Festival
Crisp, crunchy delicious harmonies from these 3 talented women from Christchurch. Fresh from their triumph at Auckland Folk Fest. A Festival highlight will be their harmony workshop.

DAVE HART

Wellington's Original Street Busker
Fine British Traditional music from this humorous Wellingtonian.

STEVE MCGLONE

Celtic to Ragtime an assortment of strings finely played. From Oamaru this musical GF also a dab hand with shadow puppets.

JOHN HOOKER

Highly respected guitarman who works with blues singer Izzy Gardner, This time playing solo and John will be presenting guitar workshops

GEOFF SKINNER

A unique performer with a wonderful laid back style, the only man we know with a gravel voice, left-handed blues and red shoes!

LURIE GRANT

Rediscovered this man at the folk clubs open mic night! More Blues from this fine guitarist and singer.

FRANCIE RYAN

Weaving magic with words for all the kids big and small... and Francie will be doing several kids stuff activities.

CANTERBURY BUSH BAND

Don't miss the sounds of the highland pipes in this unique line-up. They'll have you stamping for more at the Sat eve Ceilidh.

CAIRDE (Gaelic for "Friends")

From Nelson. Fine traditional singing from these six women - Songs from the Irish, English and Scottish tradition.

IAIN MITCHELL

The Commander & Chief of the Chch Folk Club presents work songs from the sailing ships and their applications to the job in hand (as it were).

WORKSHOP VENUE There may be alterations to the Workshop Venues. We will keep you posted.