FESTIVAL GUESTS

FROM AMERICA, WINNIE WINSTON;

Former world banjo champion; played with (among others) David Grisman, Bill Monroe, and the New Lost City Ramblers. First class American music on Banjo, Guitar and Pedal Steel.

FROM AUCKLAND. NEIL FINLAY;

Legendary Blues guitarist, Blues harp and singer. First time at a South Island Festival. Appearing on the same stage as Neil has been; Brownie McGhee, Robert Lockwood, Billy Joe Shaver, Champion Jack Dupree, Buddy Guy, etc.

FROM DUNEDIN 'THE CHAPS';

The cake eating, cowboys of cowboy-deco music. precision vocals, strong instrumentals and "interesting" arrangements of old, obscure and original material make up a not to be missed performance experience.

GRAEME YOUNG PALMERSTON NORTH;

Contemporary folk style with source material ranging from James Taylor to 'The Police' via B B King. So well received was he at the Whitecliffs Festival in 1992 that he was invited back in 1993.

FROM WANAKA LINDSAY SHIELDS;

Contemporary singer and guitarist. Beginning to make a well deserved name for herself on the New Zealand Festival circuit, a complete entertainer from tip to toe.

FROM CANTERBURY THE CANTERBURY BUSH BAND

New Zealand's best bush band. That's it, period.

FROM CHRISTCHURCH, Pounamu;

This five person group has taken the Christchurch acoustic music scene by storm over the last year and we are very lucky to have them for the whole weekend at the festival.

'Claddagh'

This band specializes in traditional Irish music the way we like to hear it (played extremely well)!! Barrie MacDonald. Davy Stuart and Paddy McCormack... say no more.

Jon Hooker;

A guitarist with style, grace, panache and precision. A joy to listen to and a totally involved festival guest.

Francie Ryan plus sons; Alan and Dennis.

A story teller who is fast building a reputation for beautifully executed stories and word plays. The three will combine for Theatresports.

Blue Swing Quartet

Expected to be found in the Smokey Jazz clubs of New York. This group is playing their way into the history of New Zealand music.

Plus Workshops;

Jon Hooker; Intermediate guitar

Kath MacDonald; Irish dance

Roger Lusby; New Zealand poetry and tall tales.

Iain Mitchell: Sailing Ships.
